Property Summary

2729 Campbell is a stately 16 unit, low-rise apartment complex ideally located several blocks east of Crown Center in the Midtown area of Kansas City, Missouri. 2729 Campbell stands 2-stories with a brick exterior, balconies and 7 off-street parking spaces located at the rear of the building. Residents possess front and rear secured entry (keypad) and are responsible for paying electricity. The owner is responsible for gas, trash, water and hot water. Of the 16 total units at Campbell, 8 are studio units and 8 are one bedroom one bathroom units. The studio units have an approximate unit size of 550 square feet, while the one bedroom units have an approximate unit size of 650 square feet. The complex is separately metered for electric and has 3 hot water tanks (1 newer) that work in sequence. Units at 2729 Campbell feature hardwood and carpet flooring, Google Fiber, balconies (1 bedroom units only), and PTAC units (heating/cooling). The property underwent a significant rehab in 2005, consisting of a new roof, window replacement, new rear balconies, electrical upgrades, and plumbing upgrades. Recent improvements include new front and rear exterior doors and updates to the hallways consisting of new LED lighting and paint. The basement level of 2729 offers laundry machines and storage lockers for tenants and is accessed from within the building. In January 2018, Children's Mercy announced they would begin construction and recruitment for a cutting edge, new research facility. The 375,000-square-foot structure will stand nine-stories encased in glass costing an estimated $200 million. The facility will be built on the current Adele campus, at 24th and Gillham, in Hospital Hill, five blocks from the complex. Completion of the tower is expected in 2020, providing 3,000 jobs for scientists, assistants and lab technicians. Additionally, Truman Medical Center has begun construction on a $70 million, 80,000 square foot medical office building at 22nd and Charlotte Street (2019). With this new addition, Charlotte Street will convert from a one-way street to a two-way street and a new 4-story parking garage is expected in April.

Neighborhood & Submarket Summary

The complex at 2729 Campbell Street is well located in the quaint Longfellow neighborhood in the Midtown section of Kansas City, Missouri. Longfellow's close proximity to Downtown, Hospital Hill, Union Hill and Crown Center might be its greatest asset with more than 88,000 employees in those areas. Hospital Hill, situated immediately north of Longfellow, is comprised of Truman Medical Center, Children's Mercy Hospital, and the University of Missouri-Kansas City School of Medicine. These three medical facilities alone make up three of the city's largest employers in the area with nearly 7,000 employees and 2,500 students. Other major employment centers such as Crown Center, Downtown Kansas City, and the Country Club Plaza are all within four miles of the Longfellow neighborhood. In January 2018, Children's Mercy announced they would begin construction and recruitment for a cutting edge, new research facility. The 375,000-square-foot structure will stand nine-stories encased in glass costing an estimated $200 million. The facility will be built on the current Adele campus, at 24th and Gillham, in Hospital Hill, five blocks from 2729 Campbell. Completion of the tower is expected in 2020, providing 3,000 jobs for scientists, assistants and lab technicians. Additionally, Truman Medical Center has begun construction on a $70 million, 80,000 square foot medical office building at 22nd and Charlotte Street (2019). With this new addition, Charlotte Street will convert from a one-way street to a two-way street and a new 4-story parking garage is expected in April. Bus stops will be reconfigured and moved closer to the campus creating a seamless transportation experience for patients and residents in the area.

Longfellow is a walking-friendly neighborhood inhabited by 1,950 residents featuring many historic homes, including Victorian-style houses, as well as apartments in historic buildings and modern complexes. The spirit of commerce in the community is displayed through the esteemed collection of independent shops, restaurants and businesses that reinforce one another. Attractions with the closest proximity to the neighborhood include the National World War I Museum, the Negro League Baseball Museum, the Power & Light District and Union Station. The Crossroads Art District, located just northwest of 2729 Campbell, is Kansas City's diverse enclave of creative businesses, boutique shops, unique restaurants, studios and art galleries. Kansas City's Power & Light District is the Midwest's premier entertainment epicenter. It is home to more than 50 distinctive and charismatic restaurants, bars, shops, and entertainment venues, offering something for everyone. Longfellow is located within Kansas City's commerce corridor, which extends through Midtown north to Downtown Kansas City. The Country Club Plaza is the south border. The corridor is home to the World Headquarters of Hallmark Cards, American Century Investments, Lockton Insurance, and Russell Stover Candies. Three of Kansas City's largest law firms Polsinelli PC, Dentons, and Husch Blackwell Sanders LLP are located on the Country Club Plaza. The Country Club plaza is the south border of the commerce corridor. The complex is ideally situated only minutes from the Westport Entertainment District, St. Luke's Hospital, the River Market, the IRS office complex, the University of Kansas Medical Center, Municipal Auditorium, the Sprint Center, Penn Valley Community College, the Federal Reserve Bank, the Stowers Institute for Medical Research, the University of Missouri-Kansas City (UMKC) main campus, and the separate campuses of UMKC Schools of Dentistry, Medicine, Nursing and Pharmacy. Rental demand is very strong in Midtown neighborhoods which feature multi-family housing, many charming, upscale historic homes and numerous parks due to the high quality of life and area amenities. The Longfellow neighborhood lies within a designated Opportunity Zone which is determined by the chief executives of every U.S. state and territory. The program provides a tax incentive for investors to re-invest their unrealized capital gains into Opportunity Funds that are dedicated to investing into Opportunity Zones.

Kansas City Information

The Kansas City Metropolitan Area is home to 2.1 million people and is dissected North to South by the Kansas and Missouri State Line. U.S. News recently analyzed 100 cities in the United States to try and find the best places to live based on quality of life and the job market in each city, as well as the value of living there and people's desire to live there. Kansas City ranked #49 on the list and continues to gain attraction throughout the country. The Huffington Post recently named Kansas City as the "Coolest" City in America and, for the fifth year in a row, named Kansas City the #1 affordable getaway. In Travel + Leisure's "America's Favorite Places" survey, readers voted Kansas City #24 while the Culture Trip voted Kansas City as one of the "12 Best U.S. cities for culture." Kansas City is famous for its musical heritage and has been a great jazz city since the 1930's. The history of the city's music and art heritage can be explored at the American Jazz Museum, the Kauffman Center, the Kemper Museum of Contemporary Art and the Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art. The Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art was named the #1 best museum in the U.S. by both USA Today and Yelp. Additionally, Yelp's #5 best museum in the country went to the National WWI Museum & Memorial, the only WWI museum in the country.

ZipRecruiter, an online job platform, concluded that Kansas City is the 4th best metro area in the country to find a job in 2017. The Kansas City area is home to such companies as: Hallmark, H&R Block, Black & Veatch, Seaboard, DST Systems, Russell Stovers, Garmin and Sprint. Kansas City is also home to an expanding Biotechnology Industry including the Stowers Institute for Medical Research, the Kansas Life Sciences Innovation Center, the Biotechnology Development Center, XenoTech and Proteon Therapeutics. Forbes ranked Kansas City as the 3rd best city for renters out of 46 cities because they have the most investor interest, while also declaring Kansas City to have the best "rental affordability" among the 46 city list. WalletHub reaffirmed Forbes lofty ranking by putting Kansas City in its Top 50 for "Best Real-Estate Markets" for large cities. The General Motors Fairfax facility in Kansas City, Kansas is ranked as the most productive auto assembly plant in North America (HARGOUR CONSULTING REPORT). The recently expanded Ford Motor assembly plant in Kansas City builds the popular F- 150 pickup truck and the Hybrid, Ford Escape. Kansas City also has a large Harley Davidson assembly plant near the airport. Kansas City is the second largest U.S. railroad hub in terms of volume (measured in units) and the biggest in terms of tonnage. The area is also home to YRC Worldwide, the largest trucking company in the nation.

For the sports fan, the Kansas City area has it all including the NFL's Chiefs, MLB's Royals, MLS's Sporting Kansas City, the T-Bones a minor league baseball team, several of the finest golf courses in the United States, the Kansas Speedway one of NASCAR's newest tracks, the College Basketball Hall of Fame and much more. Kansas City is home to Schlitterbahn Waterpark near the Kansas Speedway and is home to Worlds of Fun, Oceans of Fun and the Great Wolf Lodge, which are all large entertainment parks and destinations. Education is also an integral piece of the Kansas City metropolitan area. The area has a number of major colleges and universities such as the University of Kansas, Kansas University Medical Center, the University of Missouri Kansas City and Rockhurst University along with many others. The area is proud to have 3 of the top 10 Public School Districts in the United States.
